

Chess and carrom competition

The intra-department indoor sports competition at sanjay ghodawat University for the academic year 2019-20 organised by Aces on 14/09/19 started with carrom and chess competition. Among many advantages of monsoon, encouraging indoor sports is definitely one of them as students at sgu /sgi tend to enjoy outdoor sports. Students from all classes showed enthusiasm and gave some stellar performances to kick off very exciting sports calendar.

Sports committee carefully arranged the tournament so that everyone involved can enjoy it to the fullest compromising the competitive aspect of it. After the preliminary rounds between SGU and SGI teams qualified for the next round. Fixture was prepared in such a way that teams from the same class do not face each other in any of the initial rounds.

After some really close and nail biting finishes, the carrom competition concluded with a final match between sgu girls and sgi boys. The chess competition concluded with a final match between SGU and SGI.
